important notice

We are required by law to tell you that before we provide cover, you must fully and faithfully tell us everything you know or could reasonably be expected to know that is relevant to our decision to give you the insurance, otherwise you may receive no benefit from your policy.

your policy

Your DirectAsia travel insurance policy is a contract between you and us and is made up of the information and any declarations submitted by you to us, the terms and conditions of use set out in or on our DirectAsia.com website, your certificate of insurance and these policy details and any other written change to these documents that is advised by us in writing (such as an amendment). Together, we will call these documents your DirectAsia travel insurance policy or your policy.

Your policy is proof of the contract between you and us. It is based on the information given by you or for you when you applied for this insurance.

This information is shown on your certificate of insurance. We will take it that you promise, as far as you know, that the information you have given us is true.

You will not be covered for anything that is not described on your certificate of insurance.

Subject to payment of your premium, your policy will become effective on the date and time specified in your certificate of insurance and continues for the period of cover specified in your certificate of insurance, ending at 23:59 standard Singapore time on the last day of the period of cover.

Please read carefully your certificate of insurance and these policy details to make sure all the information in your policy is complete and correct.

If you need to change anything, please contact us immediately.

The exceptions, exclusions, sums insured, limits and payment requirements referred to in these policy details apply to all sections of your policy.

To the extent permitted by law, you will receive your policy electronically. There may be some documents that we cannot deliver electronically due to legal and technological constraints. These will be posted to you.

We will send you your policy documents electronically when you purchase a single trip policy. You can also either go online via www.DirectAsia.com to view your policy documents under "My Account", call us at 6532 2888 or email us at CustomerService@DirectAsia.com to request for a copy.

Your policy uses words that have definite meanings. To make sure that you are aware of these words and their meanings, please read the list of definitions set out in section 10.

your duty to tell us

The insurance cover under your policy is based on the information you have given to us.

When we agree to insure you, to renew or vary your policy, or to pay your claim, our decision relies on the accuracy of the information you give us.

If that information is not accurate, we can reduce or deny any claim you make. We can also cancel your policy and treat it as if it had never existed.

To avoid any cancellation of your policy or non-payment of your claim, you must answer honestly, correctly and completely the questions we ask about:

- you;
- any other people who are or are to be insured under your policy;
- the insurance history of you and any other people who are or are to be insured under your policy; and

- any events involving you or any other person insured under your policy that result in a claim on your DirectAsia travel insurance policy.

You must comply with:

- all of the terms and conditions in your DirectAsia travel insurance policy;
- any amendment to your DirectAsia travel insurance policy; and
- all of the terms and conditions set out on or in our DirectAsia.com website and which are and shall be deemed to be incorporated by reference in these policy details.

eligibility

Unless we agree in writing, each person who is to be insured under this DirectAsia travel insurance policy must meet all of the following eligibility requirements from the start date of your policy:

- be named as an insured person in your certificate of insurance;
- you and your spouse must both be between 18 and 70 years of age (both inclusive) for a new policy and between 19 and 75 years of age (both inclusive) for renewal of such a policy;
- for an insured child of yours, he or she must be between 15 days and less than 18 years of age. If your child is unmarried and in full-time tertiary education, that child may be aged up to 24 years of age;
- be a resident of Singapore;
- the policy must be purchased before the trip commences;
- the trip must commence from Singapore and end in Singapore; and

Please note that an insured person who is a child must travel with at least one adult insured person for that child's cover to be valid. This requirement applies to both annual travel policies and single trip policies under family plan.

Our family plan covers you, your spouse and children together under an annual or single trip policy. You can include up to 4 children.

at renewal – for annual travel policies

In order to offer you continued cover on your annual DirectAsia travel insurance policy, we may renew your annual policy automatically at the premium and on the terms determined by us. You should be aware that we can only consider automatic renewal when:

- you have made us aware of and we have accepted any changes to your policy details (including those of all insured persons);
- the credit card details given to us by you have not changed; and
- there are no outstanding payments or other breaches of your policy.

Unless we hear to the contrary, we are entitled to assume that the details provided by you to us (including those of all insured persons) have not changed and that you have the consent of the credit card holder. We may then automatically debit the credit card we have on file with the renewal premium.

You may opt out of automatic renewal at any time by emailing us at least 30 days before the expiry of your policy.

who we are

DirectAsia travel insurance in Singapore is issued by Direct Asia Insurance (Singapore) Pte Ltd (Reg. No: 200822611G) of 88 South Bridge Road Singapore 058716.

2 > when we cover you

Your DirectAsia travel policy covers an insured person in covered countries and during that insured person's period of insurance as shown on your certificate of insurance. Your cover is subject to the terms and conditions contained in these policy details.

Under your policy, a trip is deemed to commence when the insured person leaves his residence or place of business in Singapore (whichever is the later) for a direct journey to commence his trip and ends:

- o upon his arrival at his residence or place of business in Singapore (whichever is the earlier); or
- o two hours after the insured person's arrival in Singapore, whichever is the earlier.

Coverage for trips outside Singapore is subject to the time limit(s) described on your certificate of insurance.

If you or an insured person is on a trip outside Singapore for a period in excess of 182 consecutive days (for a single trip DirectAsia travel policy) or 90 consecutive days per trip (for an annual DirectAsia travel policy), then your policy will not cover you for the period of time you or that insured person is outside Singapore in excess of 90 consecutive days (for annual policies) or in excess of 182 consecutive days (for single trip policies). The cover for annual travel policies will reactivate upon your or that insured person's next trip outside Singapore.

automatic extension of policy cover

If at any time during the trip the insured person is hospitalised and/or quarantined outside

Singapore as directed by a doctor, then your cover will be extended by an additional 30 days even if this goes past the original period of insurance or past the 90 or 182 day limits referred to above.

We will also automatically extend your cover if the public transport in which you are travelling is delayed through no act or omission of yours, with the result that your trip is not completed when your original period of insurance expires.

This extension is for a maximum of 14 days or when you arrive back in Singapore, whichever is the earlier.

We will not pay you or an insured person any more than the maximum limit payable for the aggregate of evacuation and repatriation cover than is detailed on your certificate of insurance.

emergency medical evacuation

If an insured person suffers injury or sickness during a trip and in our opinion or the opinion of our appointed assistance company (or their authorised representative(s)) it is medically appropriate to move that insured person to another location for medical treatment or return to Singapore, our appointed assistance company or their authorised representative(s) will arrange for the evacuation of that person.

We or our appointed assistance company will have the absolute right to decide on:

- o the evacuation location; and
- o how the evacuation will be carried out, after considering relevant facts and circumstances, including the medical severity of the insured person's condition, which we or our appointed assistance company is aware of at that time.

If an emergency medical evacuation is required and takes place, our appointed assistance company will pay for the insured person's return if his original ticket is not valid for this purpose.

The insured person will be flown by scheduled airline on economy class or any other appropriate means of transportation (which may include sea or land transportation) as determined by our appointed assistance company.

We will at our option pay our appointed assistance company directly for expenses authorised by us and incurred by our appointed assistance company pursuant to your policy, up to the limit detailed on your certificate of insurance.

repatriation of mortal remains or local burial

If an insured person dies during a trip resulting from an injury or sickness sustained during that trip, our appointed assistance company will make all necessary arrangements (including procedures to meet local requirements) to return the insured person's body or ashes to his home in Singapore or another country of his next of kin's choice.

As an alternative, and subject to local laws, upon specific request of the insured person's next of kin, and where possible, our appointed assistance company will organise and pay for the cost of local burial in the country in which the insured person was visiting at the time of his death.

Our financial responsibility under this cover is limited to the maximum limit detailed on your certificate of insurance.

If the insured person's body or ashes were repatriated to a country other than Singapore or were buried locally in the country in which the insured person was visiting at the time of his death, we will only pay expenses up to the amount we would have incurred to return the body or ashes to Singapore.

general conditions

- o While our appointed assistance company provides services on a worldwide basis, it will not be required to provide such services to insured persons who are located in areas which represent war risks or political conditions such as to make such services impossible or reasonably impractical.

- Neither we nor our appointed assistance company will be responsible for any failure to provide services or for delays caused by strikes or conditions beyond our and/or its control (including flight conditions and where local or regulatory agencies prevent our appointed assistance company from providing such services).
- You and all insured persons acknowledge and accept that our appointed assistance company and the professionals and other persons to whom our appointed assistance company has referred the insured person are responsible for their own acts as independent contractors and are not employees, agents or servants of DirectAsia.

We are not and will not be responsible for any act or failure to act by our appointed assistance company or these professionals and other persons (e.g. doctors, hospitals etc).

- If the services and benefits provided by our appointed assistance company under these repatriation of mortal remains or local burial cover and emergency medical evacuation cover are covered entirely or partially by another insurance policy or other health plan held by you or an insured person, we will only be responsible for a rateable portion of the cost of such services and benefits.
- If, when using these services, the insured person has any unused portion of a travel ticket, that ticket must be transferred and surrendered to us.
- We are entitled at any time at our expense, to take over and conduct proceedings in your name and/or the name(s) of the insured person(s) to obtain compensation or payment from another party for any loss or injury that gives rise to the rendering of the services under these benefits.
- We and our appointed assistance company will not be liable for:
 - ✕ services rendered (including evacuation or repatriation) without the prior authorisation or intervention of our appointed assistance company. We reserve the right to waive this exclusion if you or your travelling companion(s) cannot for reasons beyond your/their control notify our appointed assistance company during an emergency situation. In such event, we will reimburse you only for those expenses incurred for services which our appointed assistance company would have provided under the same circumstances;

- ✕ services provided by any party other than our appointed assistance company for which no charge is usually made;
- ✕ medical treatment administered or provided by relatives, whether or not qualified;
- ✕ costs which would have been payable if the event that led to our appointed assistance company's intervention had not occurred;
- ✕ minor injury or sickness which, in the opinion of our appointed assistance company's doctor, can be adequately treated locally and which does not prevent the insured person from continuing the travel;
- ✕ expenses incurred where, in the opinion of our appointed assistance company's doctor, the insured person is physically able to return to Singapore as a normal passenger and without medical escort;
- ✕ any event occurring or treatment received when you are in Singapore; or

You can contact us to tell us about your accident by email or phone. More information concerning what to do in the event of an accident can be found on our website www.DirectAsia.com.

if there is other insurance - general

An insured person may only be covered under one DirectAsia travel insurance policy.

Where the benefits of the additional policy or policies are identical to each other, we will consider the insured person as only being insured under the policy that was first issued by us. The insured person will not be covered under the additional DirectAsia travel policy or policies.

Where the benefits of an additional DirectAsia travel policy or policies differ by virtue of the different optional covers that you have selected for the insured person, we will allow you to choose which policy you wish to continue coverage under, and the insured person will not be covered under any other additional DirectAsia travel policies with us.

We will refund, without interest, any duplicated premiums.

if there is other insurance - personal liability

An insured person may only be covered for personal liability under one DirectAsia insurance policy.

If an insured person is covered for personal liability under more than one DirectAsia insurance policy (which we will call an additional DirectAsia policy), we will treat that insured person as being covered for personal liability under the policy with the highest benefit level only and that insured person will not be covered for personal liability under the other additional DirectAsia policy or additional DirectAsia policies.

Where the personal liability benefits of the additional policy or policies are identical to each other, we will consider the insured person as only being insured under the policy that was first issued by us. The insured person will not be covered under the additional DirectAsia policy or policies.

Where the personal liability benefits of an additional DirectAsia policy or policies differ by virtue of the different optional covers that you have selected for the insured person, we will allow you to choose which policy you wish to continue coverage under, and the insured person will not be covered under any other additional DirectAsia policies with us.

We will refund, without interest, any duplicated premiums.

This condition applies to the payment of benefit on a reimbursement or indemnity basis.

If, at the time of a claim by you or by an insured person, you or that insured person has other insurance against the events covered or is entitled to a reimbursement of all or part of the claimed expenses from any other source, we will only be liable to pay for the difference between the amount recoverable from such other source and the amount that would otherwise have been recoverable under your policy.

You must fully and truthfully disclose to us the facts as you know or ought to know, otherwise you may receive no benefit from your policy.

When you answer our questions, it is important that you answer fully and truthfully as you are obliged under the law to tell us anything you know or should know that is necessary for us in making our decision to insure you or anyone else under your DirectAsia travel insurance policy and the terms on which we will insure you.

This includes answers to questions we ask when you apply for a policy, renew, or alter your policy, and any other matters which might affect whether we insure you and on what terms. We use the information you give us to decide whether to insure you, or anyone else, so it is important you understand this when you are answering our questions for yourself and for anyone else who you want us to cover.

If you do not answer our questions fully and truthfully and do not disclose all relevant information to us, then your claim could be reduced or refused (either totally or in part). We may even cancel your policy and treat your policy as never having existed.

You must inform us immediately of any changes in the information you have given us previously. If you do not, you may not receive any benefits under your policy on any claim and/or we may cancel your policy. In addition, we may also seek to recover any costs we have incurred.

misstatement of age

If at any time we discover that any insured person has misstated their age with the result that they would not meet our age eligibility requirements and as a consequence would not have been eligible for cover under your policy, then your policy will be automatically void and no benefit shall be payable. Our liability shall be limited to a refund of the premium paid without interest.

misstatement of health

If at any time we discover that any insured person has not fully disclosed, has misrepresented to us or has concealed any circumstances or issues materially relevant to his health including whether that insured person is suffering from a disease, disability, sickness or handicap, then this policy is voidable at our sole option.

payment of your premium

Your insurance premium will be shown on your certificate of insurance and you must pay your premium directly to us by the due date specified in the relevant confirmation sent by us to you.

Where you are paying your premium in full, then if the total premium is not paid and received in full by us on or before the start date, the policy will be deemed to be immediately and automatically cancelled and no benefits will be payable by us.

Any premium payment received after the start date shall have no effect on the cancellation of your policy.

Where you are permitted to pay your premium by instalment payments, then if the required instalment payments are not paid and received in full by us on or before the specified due date, the policy may be cancelled and no benefits will be payable by us.

Any premium payment received after the specified due date shall have no effect on the cancellation of your policy.

All payments for any insurance products, renewals, or other services purchased via our website must be paid in full by the due date specified in the relevant confirmation.

Unless otherwise provided for, all payments are required to be made by you using a type of credit card accepted by us at the time of purchase or renewal of the applicable insurance policy. Unless you ask us to change your payment details, we will debit the credit card we have on file to collect any money due on your policy.

reimbursements

You must pay or reimburse us any amount for which we would not otherwise be liable under your policy.

You must also inform us if you recover any lost or stolen item after making a claim on your policy. In this event, we may require you to immediately deliver and transfer the recovered item to us.

7 > keeping your DirectAsia travel insurance up to date

If there is a material change in your circumstances then you must tell us immediately. We may calculate any difference in premium from the date your circumstances changed even if this happened in a previous period of insurance.

If you do not tell us about changes in your circumstances, then this could result in an additional premium being payable by you, affect the amount you are able to claim or may even mean that you are unable to make a claim.

If your changed circumstances differ materially from what you have previously told us, then a failure to tell us of these changes could also result in your policy being declared void and as having never existed.

making changes to your policy – by you

You may contact us to request a change to be made to your policy. We do not have to accept any changes but if we do accept a change, we will confirm it in writing to you or amend it on your certificate of insurance.

If the accepted change reduces your premium, we will refund the difference owing to you, provided that such difference exceeds $10.

If the accepted change increases your premium, you will need to pay us the additional premium, provided that such additional premium exceeds $10.

The changes you request will only take place when we have confirmed them in writing to you and you pay any additional premium that may be required.

You can contact us to make changes to your policy online, by email or phone.

making changes to your policy – by us

We may change the terms and conditions of your policy, including the premium payable. We will give you at least 30 days' notice before such change is effected.

We may also change any terms and provisions of your policy at the end of your policy such that the change will be applicable from the next period of insurance. Your continued payment of the premium after we give you notice of any change to your policy will mean that you accept such change.

cancelling your policy

single trip

If you purchase a single trip DirectAsia travel insurance policy, both you and we may at any time prior to commencement of the period of insurance cancel your policy by giving notice of cancellation to the other party. In the event that you cancel your policy, we will be entitled to charge a cancellation fee of $10 to cover the cost of setting up the policy but you will not be entitled to any refund of premium if:

- the period of insurance has commenced;
- the refund amount is less than $10; or
- any claim is made under your policy.

annual plan

If you purchase an annual plan DirectAsia travel insurance policy, both you and we may cancel that policy at any time by giving 7 days' notice.

- you have reported or notified us of a claim;
- we have paid a claim; and/or
- you owe us any money

Delayed payments will be subject to interest and added charges.

- you have reported or notified us of a claim;
- we have paid a claim; and/or
- you owe us any money.

You will not be entitled to any refund of premium if the refund amount is less than $10.

If your policy is cancelled and:

- you have not reported or notified us of a claim;

- we have not paid a claim; and
- you do not owe us any money, then we will return any proportionate part of the premium for the unexpired period of insurance subject to deduction of a cancellation fee of $10. We will work out any refund of premium as follows:
